

How The Sasha Marina Show™ came To Surface

After doing so much for others, and working under their authority, why not do the same for others who need the help, guidance or recognition and at the same time be my own boss. At that moment, I totally agreed to it in my heart, but my head was confused. It was like that adulthood finally hit me. Thank god for my mother though, she saw it like a piece of cake. Truth is I didn't even know where to start.

I consider The Sasha Marina Show a non-profit. Why well because I set this all up for the love of Entertainment, and my passion for just getting to know people as a host, and let the whole world know who that person is. In other words give everyone their 30 minutes of fame as recognition for their hard work. My resourcefulness comes in very handy at the fact that, as I mentioned before this is non-profit, so everything comes from the beauty of the internet. By this I mean, everything you see has been created by me mostly, and thanks to all the social media platforms the WEB has to offer.

What I've learned from business, is that you definitely need something backing you up, not necessarily monetary, but the good energy of the Universe. The competitive edge of The Sasha Marina Show as a Media Site, Entertainment Blog, Web Show and Podcast Show comes as the end result. Why? Well because, when the work is done you get to see the reaction of that one person you've made feel a 1K x greater because of their work as an artist or professional. My talents of course love and appreciate what I do for them. The relationship with talents Featured on The Sasha Marina Show is professional but at the same time it may get a little personal because I want to get to know what got them to that place they are now. As a Host I want to let them show the world why they are who they are, and why their followers should continue their support.

*The Sasha Marina Show has grown plenty in the near 2 two years that it's been launched. It's had over 140 episodes on our Podcast and, over 30 Web Show Episodes, including our segment "That's The Movie!" Hosted by our Movie Enthusiast, Robert Alfonso-Hidalgo.
